Chapter-1

Preliminary

1. Short title, extent and commencement:

- (1) This Act may be called as the "Lands Act, 2021 (1964)".
- (2) Chapters 1, 7, 8, 10 and 11 shall come into force immediately all over Nepal, and the rest Chapters, Sections or Sub-sections shall commence in such areas and on such dates as may be appointed by Government of Nepal by Notification in the Nepal Gazette, from time to time.

2. Definitions:

Unless the subject or the context otherwise requires, in this Act:

- (a) "Landowner" means a person who has the land registered in his/her name, subject to the payment of land revenue to Government of Nepal under the prevailing law and has, by virtue thereof, the title to the land, and this term also includes the following person in respect of the following land:
  - (1) A person who is registered as a landowner in regard to the Birta land abolished pursuant to the Birta Abolition Act, 2016 (1960),
  - (2) Jimidar in the case of the land with Jimidari,
  - (2a)<sup>2</sup> In the case of Kipat, a person who possesses such land on payment of government revenue in accordance with the customs, traditions and practices or a person who possesses such land on making payment of revenue to such person,

- (3) A person who, by virtue of being an heir or coparcener of such landowner or by virtue of the relinquishment by such landowner of his/her title in accordance with law, is entitled to get the land registered in his/her name,
  - (4) Where any other person has obtained the land of such landowner on usufruct mortgage or pledge and been possessing and using the land in accordance with law, that person so long as he/she so possesses and uses the land.
- (b) "Tenant" means a peasant who holds the land that belongs to another landowner to till the same on any terms and cultivates the land by him/herself or his/her family's labour.
- (c) "Family", in relation any person, means that person and only his/her relative in the following status:
- (1) husband or wife, irrespective of whether they are partitioned or not,
  - (2) until the father or mother is alive, a son, <sup>3</sup>daughter who has not attained the age of 16 years irrespective of whether he has been partitioned,
  - (3) <sup>4</sup> .....
- (d) "Rent (Kut)" means any consideration in money or in kind or both payable by a tenant to the landowner on account of the occupation of the landowner's land for cultivation.

- (e) "House and premises (Gharbari)" means a dwelling house and the land appurtenant to such a house and this term also includes such a cattle shade, grain store (Bhakari), well, pond, garage, stable, fruits garden, bamboo bush, grass field, sports or recreation site and land used for other purposes similar thereto as is adjoined or not adjoined to the house.
- (f) "Main annual crop yield" in relation to any land means the yield of the crop having the highest yield among all the crops grown in that land throughout the year.
- (g) "Peasant" means a person engaged in cultivating the land.
- <sup>5</sup>Provided, however, that, for purposes of the determination of a debt pursuant to Chapter-9, this term means a person who cultivates land by his/her or his/her family's labor.
- (h) "Jimidari" means a system of collecting the revenue under the law and depositing, or causing to be deposited, such revenue with Government of Nepal, by making agent in the name of Jimidar, Patawari, Talukdar, Jimmawal, Mukhiya, Thari, Dware or in any other name, and includes the Kipat system.<sup>6</sup>
- (i) "Revenue" means the revenue or any other consideration equivalent thereto payable by a landowner to Government of Nepal under the prevailing law of Nepal.
- (j) "Notified Order" means an order published by Government of Nepal in the Nepal Gazette.
- (k) "Prescribed" or "as prescribed" means prescribed or as prescribed in the rules or notified orders under this Act.

Chapter-2

Abolition of Jimidari

3. Abolition of Jimidari:

Jimidari is hereby abolished. As a result of such abolition, all the rights and authorities of the agents related with the Jimidari in the concerned area (Mouja) are ipso facto abolished.

Provided that, in the case of land held by the Jimidari, such land shall be registered as Numbari (Raikar land) in the name of the concerned Jimidar as a landowner.

3A.<sup>7</sup> Provision on Kipat:

- (1) The Kipat land may, like the Raikar land, be transferred by conveyance (Pharchhe Rajinama).
- (2) The Kipat land shall, like the Raikar land, be subjected to land revenue.

4. Documents relating to Jimidari:

- (1) A person who has the custody of the documents relating to Jimidari shall submit those documents to the prescribed office or official as and when so ordered by that office or official.
- (2) Where the documents are yet to be submitted pursuant to Sub-section (1), that person shall show the documents to such office or official as and when the latter wants to see them in the course of any land related function, take them back after completion of such function and safely retain them in custody of his/her own.

5. Interim provision on collection and recovery of land revenue:

Government of Nepal may, pending another provision on the collection and recovery of the land revenue of the Jimidari abolished pursuant to Section 3, cause a person having the duty to collect and recover the land revenue prior to the abolition of the Jimidari or any other prescribed person or Village Development Committee or Municipality to collect and recover the land revenue in accordance with the prescribed terms and conditions.

6. Punishment:

- (1) If a person fails to perform the duty to be performed under Section 4, the prescribed office or official may punish such person with a fine not exceeding Rs. 500/-(Five Hundred Rupees) or with imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or with both and take custody of such documents.
- (2) If a person having duty to collect and recover land revenue pursuant to Section 5 fails to collect and recover the same in accordance with law or fails to perform any other duty pertaining thereto, the prescribed office or official may recover the loss and damage caused from such failure to Government of Nepal from the personal properties of such person and punish such person with a fine not exceeding Rs. 1,000/-( One Thousand Rupees) or with imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or with both.
- (3) <sup>8</sup> .....

Chapter-3

Ceiling of Land

7. Upper ceiling of land allowed to be owned by person as landowner:

(1)<sup>9</sup> Any person or his/her family may, as a landowner, own land within the following ceiling in the following area, not exceeding a total of 10 Bigaha<sup>10</sup>:

- (a) All Terai regions including inner Terai -10 Bigaha
- (b) Kathmandu Valley -25 Ropani
- (c) All hilly regions except Kathmandu Valley -70 Ropani

(2)<sup>11</sup> Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (1), any person or his/her family may, in addition to the land as referred to in Sub-section (1), own such land as is required for house and premises not exceeding the following ceiling:

- (a) All Terai regions including inner Terai -1 Bigaha
- (b) Kathmandu Valley -5 Ropani
- (c) All hilly regions except Kathmandu Valley -5 Ropani

(3)<sup>12</sup> Where one has, prior to the commencement of Sub-sections (1) and (2), transferred the title of landowner to any land in the areas where these Sub-sections have come into force, to any other person, except the heir or coparcener having right to partition share under the prevailing laws of Nepal, by way of sale, donation, gift, exchange or otherwise, and an instrument of transfer/conveyance has not been

<sup>12</sup> Inserted by the First Amendment and having come into force on the date on which the Principal Act came into force.

registered until the date on which these Sub-sections have come into force, and the aggregate of the land so conveyed to the other lands owned by him/her or his/her family exceeds the ceiling set forth in Sub-sections (1) and (2), such conveyance and acquisition of the title to the land shall not be recognized for purposes of this Section; and this Section shall apply as if such land were held by the landowner conveying his/her title thereto.

Provided that, this Sub-section shall not apply in cases where a claim has already been made to get the instrument registered prior to the commencement of this Section.

- (4)<sup>13</sup> If, in those areas where Sub-sections (1) and (2) have come into force, a landowner who owns in his/her name or in his/her family's name the land exceeding the ceiling allowed under these Sub-sections until the date on which these Sub-sections have come into force has, after the commencement of these Sub-sections, transferred the title to such land to any other person except the heir or coparcener who is entitled by the Nepal law to partition share, by way of sale, gift, donation, exchange or otherwise, such transaction shall not be recognized for purposes of this Section, irrespective of registration or non-registration of an instrument of such transaction; and this Section shall apply as if such land were owned by the landowner conveying his title thereto.

Provided, however, that this Sub-section shall not apply to a gift or donation granted by any person to a public educational institute.

<sup>13</sup> Inserted by the First Amendment and having come into force on the date on which the Principal Act came into force.

- (5)<sup>14</sup> In the case of a land subject to tenancy, half portion of the landowner and tenant each shall be calculated, for purposes of Sub-section (1).
- (6)<sup>15</sup> Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Section, in the case of a landowner in respect of whom a previous action relating to ceiling is yet to be decided by the date of commencement of this Section, the upper ceiling as referred to in this Section shall apply only after the settlement of the action relating to the ceiling allowed to be owned in accordance with the previous provision.

8. Upper ceiling of land allowed to be owned as tenant:

- (1) Any person or his family may, as a tenant, till the land not exceeding the following ceiling:
- |   |            |
|---|------------|
| (a) All Terai regions including inner Terai   | -4 Bigaha  |
| (b) Kathmandu Valley                          | -10 Ropani |
| (c) All hilly regions except Kathmandu Valley | -20 Ropani |
- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (1), where a person or his family owns any land as a landowner, such person may as a tenant till the land including such land, up to the upper ceiling specified in Sub-section (1).

9. Provisions relating to land owned in any other name:

- (1) If any person or his/her family has, with the intention of possessing by him/herself, transferred his land or otherwise conveyed his/her title thereto to another person or if any person obtains any land in the name of another person by any means and possesses such land on his/her own directly or indirectly, Section 7 shall apply as if such land were also owned by him/herself.

- (2) If any landowner submits an inventory required to be submitted pursuant to Section 13 as to the land as referred to in Sub-section (1) within the time limit set forth in that Section, the land shall be fixed in his name and action shall be taken according to this Act.
- (3) If any landowner does not submit an inventory required to be submitted pursuant to Section 13 as to the land as referred to in Sub-section (1) within the time limit set forth in that Section and the person in whose name the land stands registered submits an inventory pursuant to Section 13, setting out that despite the registration of the land in his name, its real landowner is someone else and thereby showing the real owner thereof, all the rights of that landowner shall be extinguished; and the right of the registration holder shall be fixed over such land and action shall be taken according to this Act.
- (4)<sup>16</sup> If a landowner or a registration holder does not submit an inventory pursuant to Sub-section (2) or Sub-section (3), as the case may be, and the matter is known from any other person, such land shall be confiscated by order of the prescribed authority and devolve on Government of Nepal.
- (5)<sup>17</sup> .....
- (6)<sup>18</sup> If an appeal is not filed within the time limit set forth in Section 55 and the confiscation order made by the prescribed authority then becomes final, a prize in a sum equivalent to Ten percent of such value of the confiscated land as to be set as prescribed shall be given to the informant.

<sup>18</sup> Inserted by the Second Amendment and amended by the Administration of Justice Reform (Fourth Amendment) Act, 2043 (1986).

10. Restriction on acquisition of land:

- (1) Except in cases of acquisition by way of partition or succession, no person shall, as a landowner, obtain any land in any manner in his or another person's name, in excess of the upper ceiling specified in Section 7.
- (2) If a person makes submission to have registration of a land acquired by that person in any manner, an instrument of such transaction shall not be registered unless and until the person acquiring the land submits to the Registering Authority an inventory setting out the total area of land that he/she owns for the time being as a landowner, in his/her or another person's name, within Nepal.
- (3) If it appears from an inventory submitted pursuant to Sub-section (2) that a land has been acquired or is intended to be acquired in contravention of Sub-section (1), the Registration Office shall not register an instrument of such transaction.

11. Punishment:

- (1) Except in cases of acquisition by way of partition or succession, no person shall, after the commencement of Section 8, undertake any land for tilling it as a tenant, in excess of the upper ceiling specified in that Section. In the event of such undertaking, such person shall, by order of the prescribed authority,<sup>19</sup> be punished with a fine not exceeding Rs. 5,00/- (Five Hundred Rupees) and shall also be evicted from the land being tilled in excess of such upper ceiling.

Provided that, Government of Nepal shall, in such manner as prescribed, acquire, sell and dispose of the tenancy right over such excess land where the land in excess of the upper ceiling specified in

Section 8 is being tilled since before the commencement of that Section as well as the tenancy right over such excess land where the tenancy right over the land in excess of the upper limit is acquired by way of partition or succession after the commencement of Section 8. If Government of Nepal is of the opinion that compensation should be given to the concerned tenant in respect of the tenancy right acquired in regard to a land in any specified area, Government of Nepal may make or cause to be made arrangements for providing or causing to be provided compensation at the prescribed rate.

(2) If any person acquires land in contravention of Section 10, such person shall, by order of the prescribed authority,<sup>20</sup> be punished with a fine not exceeding Rs. 1,000/- (One Thousand Rupees); and out of the land so acquired, the land that is beyond the ceiling of land allowed to be owned by that person pursuant to Section 7 shall be confiscated.

12. Exemption from upper ceiling:

Notwithstanding anything contained in Sections 7 and 10, the provisions contained in those Sections shall not apply to the following land:

- (a) The land owned and possessed by Government of Nepal,
- (b) The land owned and possessed by the District Development Committee, Village Development Committee or Municipality<sup>22</sup> at various levels,
- (c) The land owned and possessed by such educational or health institutions as prescribed by Government of Nepal through a

Chapter- 4

Acquisition of Land In Excess Of Upper Ceiling

13. To submit inventory of land:

- (1) The prescribed authority may, by issuing a notice as prescribed, order all the landowners to submit, or cause to be submitted, an inventory as prescribed within Thirty five days after the date of issuance of the notice.

Provided that:<sup>24</sup>

- (a) If it appears necessary to extend the time limit on an application made by the concerned person or for any other reasonable reason, the prescribed authority may give an additional time limit of up to Thirty five days after the date on which the time limit expires.
- (b) If any government employee or a person having gone abroad who has failed to submit the inventory within the time limit makes an application for the extension of the time limit, Government of Nepal or the prescribed authority may, if it deems necessary, give an additional time limit.
- (c)<sup>25</sup> If a landowner who has the land below the upper ceiling fails to submit the inventory within the time limit, such landowner may submit the inventory within One Hundred Twenty days after the date on which a notice is published by the prescribed authority after the commencement of this proviso.

- (1a)<sup>26</sup> In submitting an inventory pursuant to Sub-section (1), a landowner shall submit to any one District only where his/her land is situated a single inventory of the details of all lands held by him/her in his/her or his/her family's name as a landowner or tenant, in Nepal.
- (2) It shall be the duty of every landowner to submit, or cause to be submitted, an inventory as referred to in Sub-sections (1) and (1a).<sup>27</sup> Such inventory must be submitted by the head of the family, in the case of a family, and by his guardian or heir, in the case of a landowner who is minor or of unsound mind.
- (2a)<sup>28</sup> If even only one party out of the lender or the borrower submits the inventory in respect of the land on usufruct mortgage or pledge, an inventory shall be deemed to have been submitted in respect of such land for the purposes of this Section.
- (3) A landowner who owns lands in one or more than one area in excess of the upper ceiling allowed under Section 7 shall also set out, in an inventory to be submitted under this Section, the matter as to which land he/she wants to hold and which land he/she wants to relinquish.

14.<sup>29</sup> Preparation of inventory:

- (1) The prescribed authority shall rectify any error, if any, which he/she deems necessary and prepare a final inventory based on the inventory submitted pursuant to Section 13 and information pertaining thereto obtained from other source.

Provided that, the prescribed authority shall, prior to the rectification of any matter contained in an inventory submitted by a person pursuant to Section 13, provide the concerned person with the time limit of at least Fifteen days and with an opportunity to submit his explanation, along with proofs and evidence; and the prescribed authority may rectify the inventory only after examining the proofs and evidence submitted by the concerned person. If the inventory is so rectified, a notice thereof shall be given to the concerned person.

(2)<sup>30</sup> . . . . .

15. Acquisition of land in excess of upper ceiling:

In accordance with an inventory published pursuant to Sub-section (1) of Section 14 where a suit cannot be filed by virtue of the expiration of the time limit for making complaint against such inventory, and in accordance with the final decision of the complaint, if any, made, the prescribed authority shall acquire as prescribed such portion of the lands of the concerned landowner as is beyond the upper ceiling prescribed in Section 7, in the areas in respect of which this Chapter has come into force. After such acquisition, the rights and powers of the concerned landowner over such land shall be deemed to have been terminated ipso facto.

Provided that:

- (a) Where a landowner who has owned land in excess of the upper ceiling allowed under Section 7 in One area or more than One area, submits an inventory pursuant to Section 13 indicating the land which he intends to hold, the land chosen by him/her and falling within the upper ceiling prescribed in Section 7 shall not be acquired.
- (b) The existing landowner shall be allowed to possess and use the land so acquired, subject to the payment of land revenue to

Government of Nepal, pending its transfer to the person who gets it on its sale and disposal pursuant to Chapter 6.

16. Where land in excess of upper ceiling is acquired:

- (1) If a land acquired by a person or his family as a landowner by way of partition or succession or by virtue of the change of river course and the aggregate of that land and the land, if any, he/she owns prior thereto exceeds the upper ceiling prescribed in Section 7, such person shall submit to the prescribed authority an inventory as prescribed, within Thirty five days of the acquisition of such land.

Provided that, the prescribed authority may, if it deems expedient to extend the time limit on an application of the concerned person, give an additional time limit not exceeding Seven days.

- (2) The prescribed authority shall, on submission of an inventory by any person pursuant to Sub-section (1), proceed action pursuant to in Sections 14 and 15 in respect of such landowner and land, as well.

17. Mortgage amount of creditor to be unsecured loan:

- (1) If a creditor possessing any mortgaged land becomes unable to possess the land under Section 7 and then the debtor is to get it returned back, the mortgage amount of such creditor shall be unsecured after the date on which the debtor is so entitled to return bank.
- (2) If a creditor possessing under mortgage the lands belonging to Two or more landowners becomes unable to possess till such lands under Section 7, the land belonging to the previous debtor according to the date of instrument shall be returned back; and the provisions set forth in Sub-section (1) shall apply to such case.

18. Punishment:

- (1) If a person fails to submit an inventory required to be submitted pursuant to Section 13 or Section 16 or submits an incomplete inventory or does deliberately submit a false inventory, the land in question shall be confiscated by order of the prescribed authority.

Provided that<sup>31</sup> -

- (a) If neither the creditor nor the debtor has submitted an inventory in respect of the land subject to usufruct mortgage or pledge, the legal validity of the creditor's amount incurred in such land shall be terminated and such land shall also be confiscated by order of the prescribed authority.
- (b) The prescribed authority shall, prior to confiscating the land in question, provide the concerned person with an opportunity to make explanation, along with the proof and evidence showing as to why the confiscation should not be made, and the prescribed authority shall, by also examining the proof and evidence submitted by the concerned person, make decision to or not to confiscate the land in question.
- (2) If a person hinders or obstructs the prescribed authority or the employee deputed by him/her in the act of acquiring land pursuant to Section 15, such person so hinders or obstructs may, by order of the prescribed authority, be punished with a fine not exceeding Rs. 1,000/- (One Thousand Rupees) or with imprisonment for a term not exceeding Six months or with both.

Chapter- 5

Compensation

19. Compensation to be provided:

- (1) In respect of the land acquired pursuant to Section 15, Government of Nepal shall, subject to Section 20, provide the landowner with an amount of compensation at the prescribed rate.
- (2) After the transfer of the landowner's right to another person, Ten percent of the amount of compensation shall be given within One year and the debentures issued by Government of Nepal shall be given for the rest amount. The interest at the rate so prescribed by Government of Nepal that it is neither less than Three percent nor more than Five percent per annum, shall be given on such debentures. A share in the capital to be invested in a development plan may be purchased by these loans in accordance with the terms prescribed by Government of Nepal within a period of Ten years after the date of issuance of the debentures.
- (3)<sup>33</sup> The debentures given under Sub-section (2) shall be acceptable for such deposit or security as is payable to Government of Nepal and for borrowing a loan for an industry by furnishing them as security with any autonomous body corporate; and such debentures may be transmitted and sold or disposed of.

20. Compensation for land subject to usufruct mortgage or pledge:

Where the land acquired from any landowner pursuant to Section 15 has been taken by any other person on usufruct mortgage or pledge, the creditor having taken the land on usufruct mortgage or pledge shall be entitled to the compensation to be obtained under Section 19.

Provided that, if the amount of compensation exceeds the amount of such creditor, the surplus amount shall be given to the debtor, and if the amount is lesser, the creditor shall not be entitled to claim the debtor for the shortfall amount.

Chapter- 6

Sale and Disposal of Land

21.<sup>34</sup> Sale and disposal of Land:

- (1) The prescribed authority shall sell or dispose of, as prescribed, the land acquired or confiscated pursuant to this Act to a local person of that Village Development Committee or Municipality from which that land has been acquired or confiscated. In making such sale or disposal, priority shall be given to the freed bonded labor, down-trodden (dalit), indigenous and nationalities (janajati), out of the local landless people.
- (2) The land obtained on such sale and disposal shall be registered in the name of such person, as the landowner thereof.
- (3) The prescribed authority may give the land pursuant to Sub-section (1) to the former landowner, tenant or any other person until the sale or disposal of the land for tilling under any terms and conditions.

Chapter 8

Provisions on Rent

33. Provision of rent:

No landowner shall charge rent or collect division thereof from the tenant in excess of fifty percent of the main annual crop yield<sup>78</sup> of the land.

- (a) Provided, however, that no landowner having land in the Kathmandu Valley shall collect from the tenant the rent in excess of the following rates of the main annual crop yield of the land:

	Paddy land (Khet)	Pakho
Firstst grade ( Abbal ) one Ropani	1/3/	/10/1
Secondnd grade ( Doyam ) one Ropani	/18/6	/7/2
Third grade ( Sim ) one Ropani	/13/	/4/3
Fourth grade ( Chahar ) one Ropani	/8/5	/2/7

- (b) Where there has been charged the division or rent of crop at the rate lower than the above at the time of the commencement of this Section, that lower rate shall prevail. No landowner shall charge rent or collect division of crop from the tenant by increasing that lower rate.

- (c)<sup>79</sup> Government of Nepal may, in respect of any land or any land in the prescribed area, fix proportion of the main annual crop yield on the basis of the type of land and crop and, based on that proportion, such rent at the rate of 50 percent of the main annual crop yield as required to be paid by the tenant to the landowner pursuant to this Section. After the rent has been so fixed, the rent shall accordingly be paid and received each year.

Explanation:<sup>80</sup>

For the purposes of this Section, the rent required to be paid and received on the basis of the type of land shall be as mentioned in the certificate of tenancy right or in the tiller's provisional slip to be granted pursuant to this Act and the Rules framed under this Act; except in cases where transaction has already taken place, such rent shall be paid and received from the date on which the principal Act has come into force.

34.<sup>81</sup> .....

35. Remission of rent:

If a tenant fails to cultivate the land or crops do not go better in any year due to a natural calamity or unfavorable situation, the tenant shall give a notice thereof to the landowner or the person receiving rent on his/her behalf as soon as possible; and the landowner shall also remit the rent on such portion as it appears necessary and receive the division on proportion to the crop yield.

36.<sup>82</sup> Time for payment of rent and other provisions pertaining thereto:

(1) A tenant shall pay the rent required to be paid by him/her to the landowner within the prescribed time each year.

Provided that, where there is agreement to the effect that crops will be divided up on the spot or field at the time of harvest (Katani

Madani), the tenant shall not take away the crop yields in the absence of the landowner and his/her representative. If the landowner or his/her representative does not appear even after giving a prior notice, the tenant shall make an application to the concerned Village Development Committee or Municipality<sup>83</sup> and, in witness of at least one member of that Village Development Committee or Municipality<sup>84</sup> and two adjoining land owners, set aside the division of the landowner and keep the same in his/her own custody by executing a deed to that effect; and the landowner shall accept the division so set aside.

- (2) If, while making payment of the rent pursuant to Sub-section (1), the landowner or his/her representative does not receive the rent set forth in the bond, the tenant may convert the rent required to be paid in cash as per the market rate and deposit it, along with application, with the Village Development Committee or Municipality or District Land Revenue Office or Land Administration Office within Thirty days after the expiration of the time limit for payment of the rent by the tenant.

Provided that, if it appears that the tenant has deposited the rent less than Ninety percent of the rent required to be paid by him/her, the rent shall not be deemed paid by the tenant pursuant to this Section; and if it appears that the deposit has been made by making difference in such rate or figure or showing a false statement, two percent amount required to be collected from the landowner pursuant to Sub-section (5) shall be collected from the tenant making the deposit.

- (3) If a tenant appears to make a deposit pursuant to Sub-section (2), the Village Development Committee or Municipality or Land Revenue Office or Land Administration Office holding the deposit shall credit the amount of such deposit to the deposit account, and issue a notice to the landowner to receive that amount within Seven days.
- (4) The landowner may, upon receipt of the notice under Sub-section (3), and if he/she has any reason for refusing to receive the rent, file a petition in person or through his/her representative, with the Village Development Committee or Municipality or Land Revenue Office or Land Administration Office holding the deposit, within Fifteen days excluding the time required for journey. If he/she does not make any petition within this time limit, the landowner shall be deemed to be agreed to receive the deposited rent.
- (5) If the landowner or his/her representative makes an application for receiving the amount of money deposited within one year after the date of receipt of a notice on the deposit of rent pursuant to Sub-section (2) or, in the event of occurrence of a dispute, after the date of final decision made by the court, the Village Development Committee or Municipality or Land Revenue Office or Land Administration Office holding the deposit shall, upon collecting a fee by Two percent of the figure of deposit, give the money to him/her. In the event of failure to make such application accordingly within that time limit, the deposit shall, after the expiration of that period, ipso facto be credited to the Consolidated Fund of Government of Nepal.
- (6) A Village Development Committee or Municipality may credit to its fund and spend the amounts collected by that Village Development Committee or Municipality as fees by Two percent of the deposited amount pursuant to Sub-sections (2) and (5).

The landowner shall make a suit for recovering the rent from the tenant within Ninety days after the date of expiration of the time limit for making payment of rent or within Thirty five days after the date of commencement of this Section, whichever occurs later. No suit for recovering rent shall be honored after the expiration of that time limit.

37. Prohibition on engaging in other acts or collecting other amounts:

No landowner shall engage a tenant in any kind of work including forced and unpaid labour without providing him/her with reasonable wages or collect any kind of amount other than the rent from the tenant for letting him/her cultivate the land.

38. Punishment:

- (1) If any landowner is proved to have collected any amount from the tenant in violation of Section 33 or 35,.....<sup>86</sup> the prescribed authority<sup>87</sup> may have the amount so collected refunded to the tenant and also punish the landowner with a fine as per the amount in controversy.
- (2) If any landowner fails to give a receipt to the tenant in violation of Section 34, the prescribed authority, Court or Village Development Committee or Municipality may punish such landowner with a fine not exceeding Rs. 5,00/- (Five Hundred Rupees).<sup>88</sup>
- (3) If any landowner is proved to have engaged the tenant in any work in violation of Section 37, the Village Development Committee or

Explanation:

For the purposes of this Section, the term "agricultural loan" means a loan provided in cash or in kind to a peasant for the following purpose, irrespective of whatsoever purpose mentioned in the instrument of transaction:<sup>96</sup>

- (a) Seeds;
  - (b)<sup>97</sup> Loan provided in cash or in kind to the peasant for food;
  - (c) Provision of wages to a worker employed in the cultivation of land;
  - (d) Manure and irrigation;
  - (e) Payment of land revenue and water tariff;
  - (f) Oxen and agriculture tools.
- (3)<sup>98</sup> If there arises a question as to whether or not any loan is an agricultural loan for the purposes of this Chapter, the prescribed authority shall make a decision thereof, in presence of a representative of the Village Development Committee of Municipality and holding a public inquiry (Sarjamin) as well, if it deems necessary.

45. To ascertain actual amount of principal and interest of loan:

Following the filing of details pursuant to Section 44, the committee, association or authority getting the details to be filed shall, based on the following grounds, ascertain the actual figure of the outstanding principal and interest of an agricultural loan, by giving a reasonable time limit to the concerned persons, inquiring them thereof, and by conducting necessary investigation and inquiry:

- (a) If the creditor has already collected two-fold interest of the principal amount, the loan shall be deemed to have been repaid up.
- (b) If the creditor has collected interest, in cash or in kind, in excess of Ten percent, the excess interest so collected shall be deemed to have been deducted from the principal.
- (c) If the creditor has collected the interest on interest, such interest shall be deemed to have been deducted from the principal.
- (d)<sup>99</sup> If the creditor has possessed a land on usufruct mortgage on terms of getting produce in excess of Ten percent of the amount of mortgage, all the produces collected shall be converted into cash and the amount found to be in excess of Ten percent shall be deemed to have been deducted from the principal.
- (e) No loan lent by any one to his/her own ploughman, Jan or cattle keeper shall carry interest, and even if such interest has been charged and collected, such interest shall be deemed to have been deducted from the principal. The amount by ten percent of the total loan payable by such ploughman, Jan or cattle keeper to his/her own home creditor shall be deemed to go on ipso facto being deducted from the loan for the work done by such ploughman, Jan or cattle keeper for each year.

Provided that, where the wages payable for work as per the local usage exceed that amount, such excess amount shall be deducted from the loan.

- (f) If an interest has been collected on the seeds received by the tenant from the landowner, the interest shall be deemed to have been deducted from the principal.
- (g)<sup>100</sup> In the case of the Kipat land which is not capable of being transferred by sale or conveyance pursuant to law or custom or usage, the earning accrued or received on usufruct mortgage prior to the commencement of this proviso shall not be deducted from the principal of usufruct mortgage pursuant to Clause (d).

45A.<sup>101</sup> Power to ascertain whether document is fake or genuine:

- (1) Where, in determining the amount of loan as referred to in Section 45, it becomes necessary to ascertain whether a document is genuine or fake, the authority ascertaining the amount of loan may ascertain the same pursuant to the prevailing law.
- (2) Where any document executed prior to the commencement of this Section and produced in the course of determination of a loan pursuant to Section 35 does not bear the revenue stamp, the prescribed authority may, notwithstanding anything contained in the other prevailing laws of Nepal, get the revenue stamp affixed to that document pursuant to law and take action on that document.

occurs earlier, no creditor shall be entitled to recover the principal and interest of a loan, other than an agricultural loan, or any figure of the amount payable to him/her or to remove or get return of the oxen or other means of agriculture used by the peasant in cultivation.

- (3) Where the limitation of any creditor is to expire by virtue of his/her failure to recover the loan pursuant to this Section, his/her limitation shall be deemed to be existing until Seventy days after the date on which the stoppage thereon is lifted.

48. Provisions relating to recovered loan:

- (1) The committee, organization or authority shall pay the principal and interest of loans recovered from the peasants pursuant to Sections 44, 46 and 47 in order to recover the loans pursuant to this Chapter as well as the prescribed interest of the principal, to the concerned persons on such terms and in such manner as may be prescribed.
- (2) Until the arrangement as referred to in Sub-section (1) is made, no creditor shall be entitled to foreclose on the assets of the borrower for such loan or interest thereof.

49. Prohibition on getting return of oxen or other tools used in cultivation:

No landowner shall be entitled to get return from the tenant of the oxen or other tools of agriculture provided to the tenant for cultivation. The value of such oxen or tools shall be got determined by the Village Development Committee or Municipality; and the provisions contained in this Chapter shall also apply to the value so determined as if it were an agricultural loan.

50. Amount of other loan to be ascertained:

If any peasant makes an application to the prescribed committee or authority for getting ascertained the amount of any loan, other than an agricultural loan, which the peasant has borrowed from a creditor, the prescribed committee or authority may obtain details from the concerned creditor within a reasonable time limit and ascertain the amount of such loan pursuant to Section 45 and may, if it deems necessary, issue an order allowing repayment in installments.

51. Punishment:

- (1) If any creditor who has the duty to furnish the details of loan pursuant to Section 44 or Section 50 fails to furnish the details pursuant thereto or furnishes false details, the legal validity of the concerned loan lent by such creditor shall lapse, by order of the prescribed authority; and thereafter no claim of the creditor against the borrower in respect of such debt shall be honorable.
- (2)<sup>103</sup> The prescribed authority shall punish a person who has not deposited the saving required to be deposited pursuant to this Chapter, with a fine not exceeding Rs. 5,00/- (Five Hundred Rupees) and recover the saving from that person; and if the saving cannot be recovered immediately, the prescribed authority shall recover the saving by stopping the crops of next year.
- (2a)<sup>104</sup> A person who directly recovers the amount of principal and interest of an agricultural loan that is not capable of being so recovered directly from the borrower peasant pursuant to this Chapter shall be punished with a fine not exceeding Rs. 5,00/- (Five Hundred Rupees), and the amount in question shall also be forfeited.
